* The official race results that were mailed to participants indicated that there were 727 finishers; however, there are 730 swimmers actually listed in the results because three place numbers were each used twice: place #181 for 2 swimmers finishing at 1:53:26, place #232 for 1:59:03, and place #621 for 2:38:38.

The 1990 Bay Swim had the largest number of finishers in Bay Swim history. Check-in, start, and timing procedures were not as rigorous as they are now, and a small number of "bandits" would swim the race without registering, jeopardizing the event for everyone else. These bandits would wear fake race numbers, thus duplicating the number of an officially registered swimmer. Race Director Fletcher Hanks acknowledged in a letter to Scott Belfit (copied below) that he and David Hunt were so victimized. Scott Belfit's actual time was 2:12:28 (402nd place) instead of the 3:05:06 (698th place) listed on the Hanks results sheet. The Hanks letter did not give David Hunt's time, but based on his 1989 and 1991 Bay Swim completions, it was probably around 1:41 (60th place) instead of the 2:38:52 (626th place) listed on the Hanks results sheet!

60ish 1:41	M	37	Hunt, David S. (see note above)
404a 2:12:28	M	38	Belfit, Scott C. (see note above)
626 2:38:52	M	37	Hunt, David S. (incorrect; see note above)
701 3:05:06	M	38	Belfit, Scott C. (incorrect; see note above)

Race Director Fletcher Hanks' letter to Scott Belfit:

June 26, 1990

Scott:

You were correct in your time of finishing the Bay Bridges Swim. A bandit raced under number 64 and finished in 3:03:14, by the timers sheet. Since six numbers were left out on his sheets, I had to put them in after reviewing the tags collected at the end of the race. Then 64 moved forward 6 places to 3:05:06. When the second time was entered in the computer, the first one knocked out. There were two bandits in the race. David Hunt was in the same situation as you. I'll get the info on the Chesapeake Bridge Tunnel out in about a week. Keep Training.

Fletcher

(Note: A copy of the 1990 Bay Swim results sheet was attached to the letter with Fletcher's hand-written corrections to Scott Belfit's time)
